

OAS Expresses Confidence In Jamaica's Anti-Crime Efforts

MONTEGO BAY, (JIS):

Wednesday, June 23, 2010

Prime Minister Honourable Bruce Golding, (Centre) participates in the 5th Caribbean Environmental Forum and Exhibition being held at the Rose Hall Resort in Montego Bay from June 21-June 25. Others in photo are (From left) Dr. Sharunda Buchanan, Director, Division of Emergency and Environmental Services, US Centres for Disease Control and Prevention, Minister of Water and Housing Dr. Horace Chang, H.E. Ambassador Albert Ramdin, Assistant Secretary General, Organization of American States (OAS), Allan Hunt, President, Clean Islands International and (partially hidden) Ms. Michelle Depass, Assistant Administrator, Office of International Affairs, US Environmental Protection Agency,(EPA).

Assistant Secretary General of the Organization of American States (OAS), His Excellency Ambassador Albert Ramdin, has expressed confidence in the Jamaican Government's efforts at maintaining national security.

Bringing greetings at the opening ceremony of the Fifth Biennial Caribbean Environmental Forum and Exhibition (CEF-5), being held at the Rose Hall Resort and Spa, in Montego Bay, on Monday June 21, the Ambassador took time out from the subject at hand to express his opinion on the Government's handling of national security issues.

"Allow me to say to the Hon. Bruce Golding, Prime Minister of Jamaica, and through him to the people of Jamaica and the Government, that the Organization of American States is in full support of his efforts to maintain and enhance peace and stability in Jamaica," he stated.

He said that his organisation is fully aware of recent challenges faced by the Jamaican government, but strongly believes and stands ready to offer its full support, adding that this was outlined in a recent press release issued by his organisation.

Assistant secretary General of the Organization of American States (OAS) His Excellency Ambassador Albert Ramdin, addressing participants in the official opening ceremony of the 5th Caribbean Environmental Forum and Exhibition held at the Rose Hall Resort in Montego Bay yesterday June 21.

fundamental objectives to be achieved is social and economic development.

He added that in a democracy, the rule of law, human rights and the security of critically important, in terms of facilitating

"So Mr. Prime Minister the OAS is with you," he stated.

PRINT THIS

CLOSE WINDOW

Copyright ©1996 - 2003, Jamaica Information Service, All rights reserved.
Tel: (876) 926-3590-8/926-3740-8 Fax: (876) 926-6715 e-mail: jis@jis.gov.jm